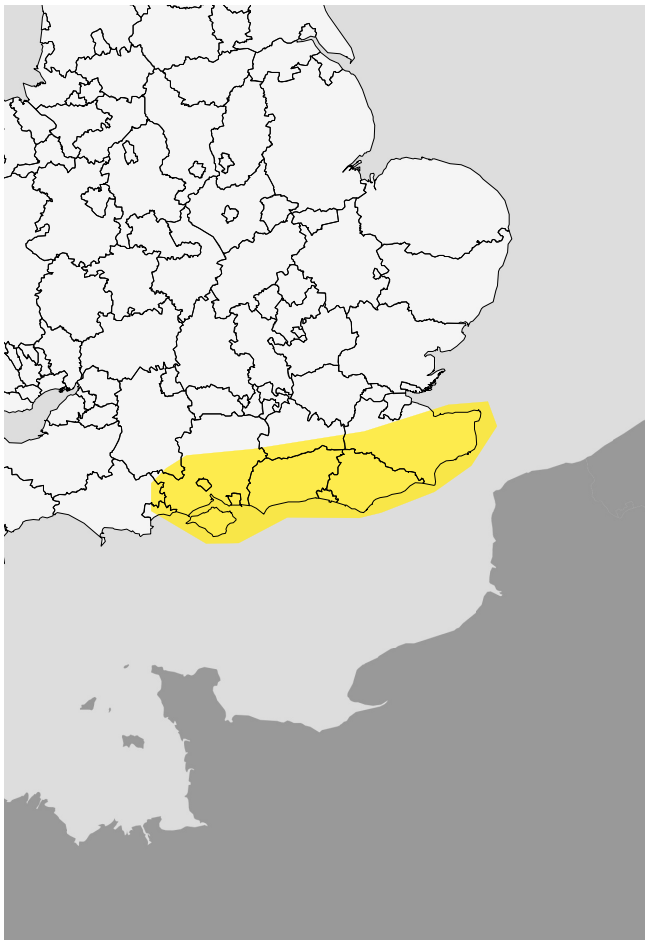
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Sat 28 Oct 2023 and
23:59 Sun 29 Oct 2023



More wet weather could bring disruption to parts of southern England.

What to expect

- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Where flooding occurs, there is a slight chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a slight chance of power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

After a wet week, further heavy and thundery showers are expected to continue at times on Sunday.

Many parts of the warning area will see a further 10-15 mm, whilst the wettest spots, most likely close to English Channel coasts, could see 25 to 35 mm. In addition, strong winds gusting 40-45 mph, especially in and near heavy showers, are also probable along exposed parts of the English Channel coastline.

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
